One Dessert Free

A Real-Fruit Dessert For Six People

This is an offer to buy you this week a Jiffy-Jell dessert for six people.

Many housewives don't know what Jiffy-Jell means to them. They know the old-style quick desserts, but not the new.

Jiffy-Jell brings you real-fruit flavors—not the artificial. Each package contains a bottle of fruit juice condensed. We crush the real fruit, and much of it, to flavor a Jiffy-Jell dessert. A Jiffy-Jell dainty seems filled with fruit. Here you get fresh-fruit delights. And you get its healthful acids, needed every day.

Try One Fruit Free

Present the coupon to your grocer this week. Buy two packages of any flavor and he will give you a full-size package of Jiffy-Jell in Loganberry or Pineapple flavor free. We will pay him for the free package. This will give you three packages for the price of two.

Jiffy-Jell comes in many fruit flavors, but the choicest are Loganberry and Pineapple. You will find in each package a bottle of the fruit-juice flavor in liquid form, condensed.

The Jiffy-Jell mixture is ready-sweetened, acidulated and in proper color. Simply add a pint of water as directed on the package, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool.

See what you get—a real-fruit dessert for six people. It will have a wealth of fruit. It will change your whole conception of quick gelatin desserts.

Note that this offer is made on two flavors—on Loganberry and Pineapple only. Your grocer has no right to offer another.

We want you to know Jiffy-Jell at its best. Then always remember that this real-fruit dainty is ever at your command. It will bring you the joys of real fruit. And it will cost you, when you buy it, only a few cents per dinner. It will cost you less than the fruit alone which we use to make the flavor.

This offer is for this week only. Cut out the coupon now. If your grocer lacks the flavors mentioned, go to another store.

PLANS TO SEIZE ALL OF ISTRIA

D'Annunzio Has Eyes on Sections Proposed as Independent State

ADMIRAL MILLO SWEARS LOYALTY

Will Not Give Out Soil Included in the Pact of London

Fiume, Saturday, Nov. 15.—Gabriele D'Annunzio returned here this evening from his expedition to Zara on the Dalmatian coast. His arrival was the occasion for an enthusiastic demonstration.

D'Annunzio left the garrison at Zara commanded by an officer of his own staff, with several hundred of his troops. D'Annunzio received a most cordial welcome at Zara.

It is announced that D'Annunzio will occupy all of Istria which is being considered by the peace conference, including the sections Foreign Minister Tittoni proposes shall comprise an independent state.

Admiral Millo, commander of the Dalmatian occupation forces, has gone over to the cause of Gabriele D'Annunzio, swearing complete loyalty to the poet and declaring that not one Italian soldier will leave soil included in the pact of London.

Admiral Millo wrote to Premier Nitti, informing him of his action. The premier replied:

"I am not astonished at the latest D'Annunzio enterprise. However, I am sorry for your action."

Fiume, Nov. 16.—By the Associated Press.—Gabriele D'Annunzio's latest exploit appears to have made him master of the entire Dalmatian coast. It secured the adherence to his side, it has developed, of Admiral Millo, commander of the Italian occupation forces in Dalmatia, thus giving D'Annunzio absolute command from the Austro-Italian armistice line, north of Fiume, southward to Ragusa, just to the north of Cattinje, covering all the approaches to the Dalmatian coast.

Four warships, including a dreadnought, and four torpedo boats were also sent to the D'Annunzio naval command, giving him a formidable weapon with which to maintain his present position.

AMERICAN WOMAN ISOLATED FOUR YEARS

In the Fastnesses of the Montenegrin Mountains, Having Gone There with Her Husband Before the War.

Podgoritz, Montenegro, Nov. 16.—Isolated for four years in the fastnesses of the Montenegrin mountains through the fortunes of war, Mrs. Rose M. Struger, formerly Miss Rose Webb of Tacoma, Wash., will soon be restored to her husband in St. Paul, Minn. Lost to her world since the Austrian herds swept over the country and her husband marched away with the Montenegrin troops, she and her little son have suffered at the anguish of complete isolation from family and friends besides the physical discomforts of wartime living in a war-wrecked country.

Five years ago Marco Struger brought his wife and baby son from the United States to visit his parents at Gekiki, Montenegro, a village high up in the mountains. While on their visit the war began and the husband shouldered his rifle to help the Austrians, but he was captured by the Montenegrins.

He was captured by the Austrians, but he was released and returned to the United States, where he sought Red Cross aid to find his wife in Montenegro.

When an American Red Cross commission arrived in Montenegro after the armistice, Mrs. Struger wrote word for word to the commission, and the supplies were sent to Mrs. Struger's appeal. She took entire charge of the relief work in her district and made several trips between her village and Podgoritz.

She proved to be a tall, good-looking woman, bronzed by the sun and winds of Montenegro. In her years with the mountaineers she had acquired a perfect speaking knowledge of their language. Mrs. Struger was put into communication with her husband and soon will join him in America.

THE FRENCH ELECTION

Twenty-Five Deputies Were Beaten for Re-Election.

Paris, Nov. 17.—Results of the elections thus far known show that among the winning candidates are 70 Republicans, five Progressives, eight Liberals and eight Conservatives.

The Republicans of the left gained seven seats and lost four; the radicals gained six and lost five; the radical Socialists gained one and lost five; the United Socialists gained two and lost eight; the Progressives gained two and lost four; the Moderates gained two and lost four; the Conservatives gained two and lost four.

Three deputies whose terms expire will have a second term and 25 deputies whose terms expire were beaten.

Among those known to have been elected are: Andre Lefevre, former minister of finance; Aristide Briand, former premier; M. Abel, governor general of Algeria; Captain Andre Tardieu, minister of blockade and invaded regions; Albert Favre, under secretary for the interior; Emile Brousse, former minister of the navy; and General Charles Lataud, former governor of Algeria.

Complete returns from 206 constituencies show the Conservative Nationalists and Moderates received 191 seats and the Extremists 15 seats. The Moderates gained 36 and the Extremists losing 16.

Gives you a life-time $107 of Heating Comfort

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL HOT WATER HEATING comfort at low cost in cottages, flats, or stores, with or without cellars

The IDEAL-Arcola takes the place of a parlor stove. But a stove wastes much of its heat up the chimney, whereas the IDEAL-Arcola is water-jacketed, and conveys its heat by hot water circulation through pipe-connected AMERICAN Radiators stationed in the adjoining rooms. Every bit of the big volume of heat developed from each pound of fuel is therefore made useful in keeping ALL the rooms uniformly, healthfully warm. There is no coal-waste. The IDEAL-Arcola does not rust out or wear out—will outlast the building—is a genuine, permanent investment!

Shipped complete ready for immediate operation

The beauty of the IDEAL-Arcola method is that no cellar is needed. Everything is on one floor. The Arcola is placed in any room that has a chimney connection. No running to cellar. If there are two or more tenants in the building, each can have his own Arcola and make the temperature to suit his own needs—can make his own climate! If you do not wish at first to heat the entire building, buy a small size IDEAL-Arcola and later on buy extra sections for the IDEAL-Arcola and two or three more radiators to warm more rooms.

Cleanly heating—healthful heating—free from fire risks!

Unlike stoves, there are no coal-gas leaks into the living-rooms. The IDEAL-Arcola delivers the soft, radiant warmth of hot water—not the dry, burnt-out atmosphere of stove heating. There is no fire risk to building—no danger to children—fire lasts for hours! The Arcola burns hard or soft coal, coke, gas, or wood. Brings cost of heating down to the lowest notch—and gives IDEAL comfort.

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today

TREASURE SHIP BEING SALVAGED

Cannon Breach-Blocks, Bits of Hull and Other Relics of 330-Year-Old Ship Being Hauled Up.

Tobemory, Scotland, Nov. 16 (By the Associated Press).—Salvage operations on the galleon, De Florencia, the treasure ship of Spain's "Invincible Armada," sunk off Tobemory 330 years ago, are beginning to yield results. These operations were begun in 1903. Recently several breach-blocks of cannon, bits of the ship's hull and other relics have rewarded the treasure hunters' efforts.

The De Florencia was sunk by one of the Macleods of Morven, who fired her powder magazine. If her main stores are retrieved from the sea, the ship should yield a rich haul for, according to contemporary chroniclers, the ship's stronghold was full of gold, silver plate and jewels, including a crown intended for the coronation of the Spanish nominee to the throne of England. By a covenant made shortly after the wreck this crown, if recovered, goes to the king of England; but the rest of the treasure to the duke of Argyll.

The explosion which sank the De Florencia scattered the vessel and her contents over a wide area of sea bed and that fact has so far baffled those who have tried throughout the centuries to locate the wreckage and treasure.

Inverary castle houses a beautifully ornamented bronze ordnance which was one of the galleon's 52 guns. From time to time blunderbusses, swords, scabbards, doubloons and pieces of plate have been brought up. The bits of oak found, believed to be bits of the ship's hull, are overlaid with a crust of compressed shell as difficult as concrete to penetrate and some time may elapse before it is possible to reach the more important part of the sunken cargo.

DENY COLLUSION WITH SOVIETS

Big Corporations in United States Were Declared Implicated

IN MOVEMENT FOR RECOGNITION BY U. S.

The Soviet Representatives Claim They Can Bring $200,000,000 Gold

New York, Nov. 17.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled "ambassador of the soviet government of Russia," and A. A. Heller, commercial attaché of the "soviet embassy," declared last night that most of the big corporations of the country were aiding them in efforts to get the United States to recognize the soviet government.

Martens named the United States Steel corporation and Standard Oil Co. among the big concerns whose support he was seeking, while Heller asserted that "the big Chicago packers, Armour, Swift, Nelson, Morris and Cudahy, were among the people helping us to get recognition from the state department."

Heller added that the soviet government is placing enormous orders for the delivery of food supplies to Russia, "as soon as this government allows business relations to be resumed," and added he had been negotiating "for large supplies of condensed milk from the Sheffield company."

These statements brought prompt denial from Albert H. Gary, head of the United States Steel corporation and United States Steel corporation and Farms company, that they had had any dealings with the soviet representatives here.

"Many of the firms with which we have been negotiating," Horner said, "have been doing all they can to bring about resumption of trade relations with Germany. They are all perfectly satisfied with our ability to pay, and we are in a position to send to this country $200,000,000 in gold, if such an amount is necessary to secure our credit."

"Among the other firms that we are negotiating with are the American Steel Export company, the Lehigh Machine company, the Adrian Knitting company, the International Harvester company, the Aluminum company of America, the American Car and Foundry company, the Amoskeag Manufacturing company, M. C. D. Borden and Sons, the Boston Thread company, and the Glover Machine company."

DON'T BELIEVE STORY.

That Russian Soviets Had Business Negotiations with Amoskeag Co. Manchester, N. H., Nov. 17.—"I do not believe there is any foundation to the story," said H. G. Straw of the Amoskeag company when asked regarding the report that the Russian soviet government had negotiations with the company regarding sales to Russia.

NORWEGIAN BOLSHEVIKI.

Are Quite Strong, They Having Mustered 250,000 Votes.

London, Nov. 17 (By the Associated Press).—A strong bolshevik element in Norwegian socialist circles is reported by a Scandinavian correspondent of Common Sense, one of the widely read London weeklies. He writes that the Left Socialists in Norway stand without reserve on the side of the Russian bolsheviks. At the last general election they polled 250,000 votes and won 32 seats. One of their leaders, Edgode Nielsen, says the correspondent, visited Moscow where he "sat at Lenin's feet."

"The program is openly revolutionary," adds the correspondent, "the leaders even rejecting reforms which are in their own program once these reforms promise to be attainable by parliamentary means. An instance is the eight-hour day reform which was promised in the king's speech at the last Storting opening; but which, under the inspiration of the Left-Socialists the workmen set about realizing by 'direct action,' knocking off work an hour before the customary time without giving their employers notice."

"Similarly the Left-Socialists repudiate wage agreements, and last summer workmen expired, they opposed a renewal and urged the workmen to seize the factories. In particular they opposed a renewal of the customary clause, 'the employer controls and distributes work.'"

"Naturally the party is strongly anti-militaristic; some months ago it formally ordered the constitution of 'workers' societies by all men liable for army service. The Moderate Socialist leader, Lian, was obliged to swallow this demand, but he made the qualification that the soldiers' societies should go no further than preventing the employment of the military against working men."

"Many of the Left-Socialist newspapers are extremely aggressive; they support without reserve all actions of the Moscow soviet and of the extraordinary commission for combating counter-revolution."

How to Take Care of a Child's Teeth

Every up-to-date mother will get the little ones a child-size tooth brush and a good dental preparation and see that they use both daily. She will not permit chlorate of potash and carbolic acid tooth pastes or others likely to prove harmful.

Prof. Lewis B. Allen of Westfield, Mass., advises the use of Albodent Dental Cream in all homes where there are children. Albodent is calcium carbonate, saponified and mixed with the well-known antiseptic oils of cloves, cinnamon and eucalyptus, making an ideal composition, one-third cleansing, one-third polishing, one-third antiseptic. It is effective and safe. A tube containing 85 brushings can be bought anywhere at a popular price and guaranteed.

OPERA PRICES SOAR.

More Than Doubled in Berlin Since Pre-War Times.

Berlin, Nov. 16 (By the Associated Press).—Prices for theatre and opera seats are soaring to the skies in Germany. It has just been announced that it will be necessary to charge 80 marks for an orchestra seat and 160 marks for a box seat at the first performance of Pfitzner's "Palestrina," which is soon to be given. Before the war there was much criticism because 30 marks was the charge for a seat at the opera when Caruso sang.

When Frau Fritz Massary's opera, "Syllbi," was produced for the first time the other night, speculators advanced the price of seats to 120 to 150 marks.

The audience included "illicit traders" whose wives and daughters glittered with diamonds.

To Keep Bark on Logs.

Tacking on the bark with large-headed nails placed one on every square foot of surface and painting the heads of the nails to resemble the color of the bark is one recommendation just made by the forest products laboratory at Madison, Wis., for preventing bark from flaking off logs used in rustic structures. Another recommendation is that instead of tacking on the bark the timbers should be scored on two sides; that is, the bark should be cut off into narrow strips for the entire length.

SINN FEIN PRISONERS IN DUBLIN FREED

In Accordance with Provisions of Cat and Mouse Act Passed in England to Deal with Suffragettes.

Dublin, Nov. 16 (By the Associated Press).—Sinn Fein prisoners in Dublin have been released under an order of Oct. 17, not as a matter of policy to offer opinion but in accordance with the provisions of the cat and mouse act passed to deal in England with the suffragettes. The prisoners were on a hunger strike and the authorities decided either to release them or let them die. The plan of forcible feeding was condemned by the medical advisers of the government and was abandoned.

The prisoners did not receive pardons. Their sentences were suspended, and when they have recovered their health they can be rearrested and made to serve the remainder of their term.

The hunger strikes arose out of the claim of the Sinn Fein that they should be treated not as criminals, but as political prisoners. This claim has from time to time been conceded, but the application of the concession leads to constant disputes. There is a difference of opinion as to which of the prisoners are political. The prison authorities determine it by the nature of the charge and the sentence. A man charged with aiming to set up a republic is political. If the charge is making a speech inciting to violence, the prisoner is allowed no relaxations.

The prisoners insist on being treated alike. When this is refused they destroy the furniture in their cells and endeavor to make government in the prison impossible. They are then handcuffed and put in solitary confinement. Then they go on hunger strike. A few days of this puts many of them into a condition which necessitates their removal to a hospital. Release follows and they return to their homes, where they are welcomed by sympathetic crowds, and where they generally continue the course of action which led to their imprisonment. When in due course they are rearrested they are again the object of popular demonstration. The whole process goes on continuously.

The trouble of the administration arises from the fact that the sympathy of the masses of the population is with the prisoners.

DARING EXPLOITS

By Father Meens, Who Warned London of Impending Air Raids.

London, Nov. 17 (By the Associated Press).—Exploits of Father Meens, who warned London of impending German air raids during the war and who worked with Edith Cavell, the martyred British nurse, in aiding British prisoners to escape from Belgium, have just been disclosed by the Roman Catholic periodical, The Universe. Father Meens, who lived in Brussels, was associated with the British Intelligence department.

Once he disguised himself as a cat-tail driver and, making his way to Ostend, found the hiding place of the German submarines.

Air raids to England, the priest learned, were usually preceded by a dinner of the officers of the Zepplins and Gotha. By pretending to be a pastry cook, he discovered when the dinners were to be held. Carrier pigeons carried his messages to Holland, and before 6 p. m. the British admiralty would have word of the coming raids.

Escaped British prisoners seeking

Nurse Cavell proceeded disguised, to Brussels and were met there by a little girl of 11. She used to carry a big doll, run about and play and look in the shop windows. Without any sign on her part of recognizing the soldiers, she would lead them to the house where Nurse Cavell awaited them. There the men were bandaged, transformed into "hospital patients," and turned over to "Baron de launay," otherwise Father Meens, who took them across the frontier.

On the night of Nurse Cavell's arrest, Father Meens had been sent to Holland to carry a message for Cardinal Mercier, thus escaping death, as he had arranged to meet at midnight two other conspirators, both of whom were taken and shot.

baking so famous throughout New England.

This same authority went on to say that the old-time "baking day" is not nearly so great an institution as formerly. In those days a woman spent a greater part of her time in the kitchen. She was responsible for the greater significance to the texture of a pie-crust than to the social duties which play so important a part in the life of a woman.

Nowadays, however, and thanks to a nation-wide plan of selling over fresh products of all kinds, even from many an overseas source, the thereby find their way to the table of the woman.
